SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM

Application Instructions

Middle East Partnership Initiative

Small Grants Program

The Middle East Partnership Initiative (MEPI) of the U.S. Department of State is pleased to announce funding is available through the Small Grants program. Please follow all instructions below carefully.

Purpose of Grant: Small Grants are intended for local members of civil society, including non-governmental organizations and universities, to undertake democracy and reform projects. Funding is available for projects that increase political openness and democratic processes, create new economic opportunities, enhance access to quality education systems, and/or empower women. Small grants proposals should aim to expand the community of reform-minded individuals and groups while meeting one or more of the following MEPI priorities:

1. Supporting local civil society, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), women's groups, and professional associations at the grassroots level that are committed to building democracies and undertaking reform and can be expected to play a role of growing importance and influence in the future.
2. Encouraging programs for youth, ages 12-17, and particularly those that provide youth with practical opportunities to experience democracy in action, participate in public service, volunteerism and contribute to improving their local communities.
3. Fostering networks among local NGOs, civil society, governments, and the business community, as an avenue toward promoting democratic reforms.
4. Encouraging women's participation in public life at the local, regional and national levels.
5. Promoting good governance programs that include anti-corruption and transparency components.
6. Promoting the rule of law and legal reforms including legal rights education and professional legal education.
7. Promoting public awareness and involvement in current political issues, including voter education, and building advocacy skills among individuals and groups.

Size of Awards: Small Grants usually range in size from $10,000 to $25,000.

Length of Grant: Small Grants projects must be completed in one year or less.

Application Process: The Embassy is currently accepting small grant applications until (April 15, 2007).

Please submit your proposal to (Tunisia M. Owens at Owenstm@state.gov).

using the attached application. Applications are accepted in English or Arabic, but final grant agreements will be concluded in English. We look forward to receiving creative proposals to address the areas of interest outlined above. For a list of

Notes:

- Budgets may contain an estimated amount for bank fees.
- Funding should not duplicate on-going activities.
- MEPI encourages applicants to seek funding from other donors and to offer some type of cost sharing (volunteer time, space, equipment etc.)
- MEPI funds should not be used for food or entertainment expenses. However, if coffee breaks or working lunches for seminar/conference participants are an integral part of the overall project, and funding is not available from other sources, these costs may be covered but should be limited to a maximum of 15% of the total award amount. Meals may not include charges for alcoholic beverages.
- * Services/Consultants – Professional services should not exceed $500/day or local rates, whichever is lower.
- Compensation in reasonable amounts can be paid to project's key personnel for the portion of their time devoted to the work in this project. Compensation levels should be no higher than other local salaries (where appropriate), and should include all taxes.
- If requested, for equipment and/or services over $2,500, three pro-forma estimates from the service or equipment vendor should be attached. Purchase of equipment should be well justified. Equipment should not exceed 20% of the total grant request.
- Entertainment costs (receptions, social activities, ceremonies, alcoholic beverages, cocktail parties, guided tours) are not allowable expenses.
- Transportation costs should not be for First or Business Class airfare and must be in compliance with US Government Travel Regulations.
- The use of "miscellaneous expenses" or any similar term as a budget item is unacceptable.
- Please provide bank account information below:
